Chord diagrams for C and F chords. The C chord diagram shows an open low E string, an open A string, and an open D string, with an 'x' above the G, B, and high E strings. The F chord diagram shows a bar across the first two frets, an open low E string, and an open A string, with an 'x' above the G, B, and high E strings. Below the diagrams is a rhythmic notation: a double bar line followed by a colon, then four slashes, a vertical bar, four slashes, and a double bar line with a colon.
