The image shows four guitar chord diagrams for the chords E, C, G, and F#. Each diagram is a simplified representation of a guitar fretboard with six strings and four frets. Above each diagram is the chord name in large letters. Above the strings are 'x' marks indicating which strings are muted. A dot on a string indicates a finger placement. Below each diagram is a rhythmic notation consisting of a vertical bar followed by four diagonal slashes. The F# diagram has a double bar line at the end.
